AMELIA ISLAND CONCOURS NOW AVAILABLE ON DVD

Once-In-A-Lifetime Gathering Of The Greats Who Shaped This "No Rules" Series

JACKSONVILLE, FL; July 21, 2006 --- A two-hour DVD of the "Legends of CAN-AM" seminar held at the 2006 Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance is now available to the public. Filmed and produced by Dennis Koleber Productions of Dallas, Texas, in conjunction with the Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance and Victory Lane Magazine, the DVD revisits racing's most outlandish series ever through the men and machines that competed in it.

The panel included many of the participants, including Jim Hall, Vic Elford, Sam Posey, Brian Redman, George Follmer, Hurley Haywood, Charlie Kemp, Bob Nagel, George Drolsom, Oscar Koveleski, and the series' last champion Jackie Oliver. Also on the dais were designers Peter Bryant and Karl Kainhofer, along with Pete Biro and Pete Lyons who documented the series now famous for its "excess was barely enough" credo.

Legends of CAN-AM includes historical images from the leading photographers of the series and video footage from current vintage events featuring CAN-AM cars, along with candid thoughts and anecdotes from the entire seminar. The DVD is $29.95 plus $4.95 shipping & handling. For ordering information, visit www.denniskoleber.com or call 1-972-423-1060.
